

Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 09 September 2010 07:08 -

Installation Instructions for Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant

Once you have properly installed Ride-On Tire Protection System (TPS) tire sealant in your vehicle, the

Ride-On Tire Protection System tire sealant contains specially selected binders to help it adhere to the

Warnings and Precautions

KEEP AWAY FROM CHILDREN! Ride-On Tire Protection System is not meant to be taken internally. It contains

Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 09 September 2010 07:08 -

Ride-On Tire Protection System Safety Data Sheet (MSDS) for Sealant, sealant, and fully tested special

Regularly inspect your tires for damage. In case of a cut, impact break, bruise, bulge, snag, or sidewall

Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant

Written by Administrator
Thursday, 09 September 2010 07:08 -

Use caution when installing Ride-On TPS, as it may stain fabrics and clothes. To clean a stain, DO NOT

Dosage Requirement of Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant

Please refer to the Dosage Tables for the appropriate amount of Ride-On that should be installed in your

Other tire sealant manufacturers prescribe arbitrary dosage amounts of their sealants (e.g. 4-oz. for 14

With the Ride-On Tire Protection System, nearly 2 times as much sealant would be prescribed for the F

Removal of Ride-On TPS Tire Sealant From Tires & Retreading

There is no chemical bonding of Ride-On TPS to the tire. It can be easily removed from the tire by was

Unlike many of the rubber based tire sealants widely available on the market, Ride-On TPS will not ma

Ride-On contains ethylene glycol, commonly used as an antifreeze and in cooling and heating systems